WE GUARANTEE

That all seeds said by us shall prove to be as represented, to the extent that should they not do so, we will replace them, or send other seeds to the same value. But we cannot guarantee the crop any further than the above offer, as there are so many causes which operate unfavourably in the germination of seeds in a tropical climate, over which we have no control. Among the causes of failure may be mentioned unfavourable weather, which is one of the most important. The soil may be in proper condition when the seed is planted, but the weather which follows may be too wet, which will cause the seed to rot; or it may be too bot and dry, which destroys the germ before it shows itself. soil may also be unfavourable for the variety of seed planted. And lastly, the seeds may be and are frequently destroyed by vermin of various kinds. Such occurrences are beyond the power of man to prevent, and for which we cannot be responsible.

Nearly two hundred shops were burnt out by this fire, and the losses sustained are estimated at the lowest figure at nearly a million dollars. As there are no insurances in Chinese cities this will be a dead loss to the unfortunate sufferers. The other fire was at Honam, on the other side of the river and nearly twenty families were rendered houseless. An important decree dated the 12th inst. has been telegraphed throughout the empire to the Viceroys and Governors of provinces, granting permission to Provincial Treasurers and Judges the privilege of memorializing the Throne direct, instead of through the Viceroys and Governors as has been the custom ever since the reign of the Emperor Yung Ching, nearly hundred years ago. The only exception to the rule in which a Treasurer or Judge is allowed to memorialise direct, is when they are appointed to their posts when they return thanks for the honour conferred on them. The young Emperor Kuang Hsu, however, means to do away with this custom and allow these officials to memorialise themselves to the Throne on any subjects affecting the welfare of the people, as well as to put a check on the alleged peculations and injustice of many of the Viceroys and Governors throughout the empire.

An elderly aposile from Bigdad, named Abdullah, is at present in Hongkong on the pretence of collecting funds with which to build a synagogue in his native desert. His laudable object does not seem to arouse the enthusiasm of the Israelitish community here to any extent, and the patriarchal old party has to hustle around a good deal to pay expenses. He walked into E. D. Sassoon & Co.'s hong this morning to canvass, and Hebrew was flying around very freely for awhile. In the end he made a collection, but it was much the same as Gentile generosity, for when it was handed over to him he tore his venerable beard and requested Nebuchadnezzar and Co. to keep their eyes on the mean lot. The police collected him and his shekels before anything happened, and he was police-courted about noon. Nobody could be got to speak his language, however,—a weak minded essay by an amateur being greeted with "Too muchy bad." So he had to be remanded, pending the discovery of an interpreter.

No alarm was sounded, but a telephone message from the Taipingshan district police station to the Central fire brigade caused a couple of hydrant despatch boxes to be sent, which made short work of the incipient flames, scarcely any damage being done. The origin of the little blaze is said to have been the overturning of a little earthenware furnace containing burning charcoals, over which decoction was being brewed for a patron. While hastening to the scene, our reporter interviewed a lukong about the fire, and he said that "the fire was out already because it wouldn't catch." SOME time ago Signor Agrati was advance agent for Chiarini's Circus and he took them through South America. In one of the towns visited, Agrati, who was ahead of the show, was struck with amazement, for, hunt where he would, he could not come across a site on which to erect the tent. He didn't know what to do, and one fine morning before the show arrived, with chin buried in his bosom and hands tightly wedged into his trousers pockets, the unhappy Agrati, with slow and measured tread, strode through the town, but he could not discern a piece of level land as large as a billiard table. Suddenly the burly form of a monk loomed up over one of the many hills with which the place abounded, and with a wild shrick of unfeigned oy Agrati approached and told the pious mar his tale of trouble. The good man invited the Signor to a neighbouring convent. Judge of his delight when, on entering, Agrati discovered an immense lump of land just suited for a circus Cautiously approaching the pious man on the subject, and promising all the monks free front scats, Agrati worked his little point, the upshot being that Chiarini's Circus entered the town beautifully billed, heralded with an unusual flourish of trumpets, and at something like eigh shillings a head filled the convent to overflowing Sercombe-Smith and Champain started the desence for the Club, Miles and Corporal Rice trundling for the Garrision. Smith was in rare hitting form and scored at a fast pace, the Nava' man playing a steady game. When the total reached 46 Champain gave a chance to Woodcock at square leg off the Corporal, which was accepted, and only another run had been added when Smith was caught by Watherston off the same bowler, his 32 including one 5, five 47 and four 2's. Dr. Lowson and S. W. Coxon were next associated, and the rapid rate of scoring was kept up until Coxon wa badly run out with the total at 68, Knight taking the vacant wicket. Play was resumed on Saturday shortly before score and was then given out "leg-before" to Miles. The Doctor's 52 included one 6, one 4 six 3's, and six 2's. Hughes and Atkinson were easily got rid of, but when Hutchison joined Knight the bowling was most severely handled. full punishment which he could inflict was Several changes were tried, Campbell, Watherston, Davidson, Woodcock and Blair all having a turn, and with the total at 177 the lastnamed had Knight caught by Woodcock for an excellent 32, which included six 3's and four 2's. Fisher was next comer and assisted Hutchison to raise the total to 233, when he was stumped by Campbell off Miles, having hit up 24 in good form. Lammert and Taylor both fell victims to the Major's slows, the innings eventually closing for 266, Hutchison being not out four 3's, ten 2's, and singles. Major Miles bowled in capital form, taking 5 wickets for 60 runs; Corporal Rice had 2 for 69, Blair one for 23, and Woodcock one for 33.

In a minority of 206 the Garrison commenced hopeless task with Blair and Campbell, as in the first innings, and again they had bad luck, as the Highlander was out, caught Woodcock then came in and a good Stand was made, the telegraph showing 59 when the Gunner' sent one of Hutchison's back to the bowler's hands, where it was safely held. Woodcock had made 22 by sound cricket. No other serious opposition was offered to Knight's phenomenally successful bowling, and when Blair was dismissed after tot-lling 53 in brilliant style-5 for 89-the end very soon came, the last wicket falling at 119 the Club thus winning by an innings and 87 runs. Knight took 7 wickets for 38 runs-a splendid average -, Hutchison 2 for 14, and Fisher one for 2.

Sergeant Robertson returned from Japan last evening by the Ancona, bringing with him Lucio Pereira de Campos, clerk to Mr. N. J. Robinson, who was extradited by the Japanese Government for forging his employer's name to a cheque for $1,000. The prisoner, who was attired in the usual style of the Portuguese nobility, was brought before Mr. Wodehouse this morning. Mr. Wotton prosecuted, and Mr Caldwell defended. The second of the second

Mr. Wotton said that the charge was one o forging a cheque, the property of Mr. Robinson. After the forgery the prisoner escaped to Japan. A warrant was issued, and a constable sent over and last night he returned with him. Owing to the shortness of the notice s remand was desir able, after formal evidence of the arrest.

Acting Sergeant Robertson then deposed that he received the prisoner into his custody in in hand, rushed to his consulate for safety. He Japan by virtue of the warrant produced. There I shewed it to a Japanese official when I understood to be the Public Prosecutor, and he told a native policeman to hand the prisoner over.

THE INTIMIDATION OF COOLIES.

The frequency with which cases of intimidation among Chinese workmen have been brought before the Magistrates here, caused Mr. Wodehouse to deliver himself at some length on the subject this morning. Two Chinese employed at the East Point Sugar Refinery were charged with-attempting to extort money from another man employed there. Mr. Wotton prosecuted, and Mr. Ho Wyson defended. The complainant said that the prisoners had threatened to get him discharged and driven out of Wanchai, because he would not join their Society and pay a dollar,

His Worship said that that was a kind of intimidation which the Chinese were very fond of practisi g. They did not seem to understand that a man was allowed to do what he liked as long as he did not break the law, and that no one could interfere with him. If a man did not choose to join their society they could not compel him to do so, without rendering themselves liable to heavy punishment. The intimidation in that case seemed to have been going on for some. months. Even supposing that the Society was perfectly legal-which had not been shewn-they had no right to try and force him to join it. " It was not in their trade alone, but in nearly every .Chinese craft, that such cases occurred. The head coolies thought they had power to compel wicket had "fallen, the score standing when any one in that trade to do anything they chose. There was no harm in trying to persuade a man to do a thing, but they must keep within the limits of the law, and the moment they used noon, when Lowson added II to his over-night | threats they exceeded those limits. It was not to be tolerated that headmen, such as the prisoners, should exact what they chose from the workmen under them. If they chose to take their own measures, and put themselves above the law, they must take the consequences. . The imprisonment for one year. They would be sentenced to four months' hard labor; but if there was any repetition of the offence, the intimidators would be very severely dealt with. The police, would be instructed to keep a careful look-out, to that end.

ANOMALOUS PUSITIONS OF THE HIGH OFFICIALS AT CANTON.

Some time ago we chronicled the arrival of the Imperial Courier at Canton, carrying the Autograph Imperial decree of the Throne, apwith 77 to his credit-one 6, two 5's, three 4's, pointing Yue Che-k ai Provincial Treasurer of Kuangtung, acting Futai of the same province. Having arrived at his destination it would naturally have followed that the scals of the Futaiship, now held by Chang Chihtung, should have been given up to the new appointee. The non-handing over of the seals in question and Chang Chih-tung still as Acting Futai, was a matter containing food for conjecture which has at last been partially brought to light by the fact that the Imperial by Hughes off Knight, with the total at 6. Courier had the decree stolen on the road, through some mysterious agency, which appears hard to explain as the covering of yellow calico was delivered over intact to Chang Chih-tung, but which being opened with 'all the ceremonies required for the occasion, proved to be an empty bag after all ! One may imagine the consternation of all present at this unexpected turn of afficirs, -especially uncomfortable to the nervous system of the Courier, who perhaps felt the sharp stinging sensation as if of a knife on the back of his neck, caused by the cold thrill that crept along the segments of his spinal column. However the matter was kept a profound secret until lately, when it saw the light of day, at the turning over of the Viceregal seals by Chang Chih-tung to his successor, Li Han-chang. At the end of this ceremony Chinese official etiquette told Chang Chih-tung to attempt the handing over of the Futai's seals to the Provincial Treasurer; but a point in eliquette also demanded that Yue Che kini should refuse the distinction, until the duplicate decree should have arrived. So Chang Chih-tung had to stay at Canton longer than was at first anticipated. And, here again comes "another ridiculous state of affairs—a correspondent informed us that the turning over of the seals occurred at the Viceregal Yamen, we now hear that it was at the Futai's Yamen that the ceremonies were gone through with. So here we have the anomalous position of a Viceroy living in the Futai's Yamen, and the acting Futai living in the Viceroy's yamen la Chang Chih-tung's intention was to have yaca'ed his present quarters at the Viceregal yamen, the moment he had succeeded in getting Yue Che-K'ai to accept the Futai's seals, but that official's refusal compelled him to stay on until the duplicate copy of the decree and Board of Civil Appointments' despatches arrived. .: These arrived late last night, overland. and the ceremony of handing over the Futai's seals to Yue Che-K'ai took place at 7 o'clock this morning. Doubtless the affair would not have assumed such an aspect, had Peking not been brought so near Canton by means of the telegraph and steam-boats. The loss of the decree, however, having been telegraphed north, the taking over of the scale by Yue Che k'ai before the arrival of the decree in writing would have constituted a grave offence against the Throne, as wanting in respect, and would, without doubt, have cost that official his post, if once memorialised to the Throne by those busy-bodies the Censors at Peking.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.) CHEMULPO, October 27th.

On the 10th instant at I a.m. the United States flag-ship Omaka, with Admiral Belknap on board, arrived here. We were made aware of the fact, though wrapped in the arms of Morpheus, by the firing of a huge gun. The report was so loud (that my wife, thinking the dreaded Russians had come, went into a fit of hysterics which, lasted for upward of an hour. I nearly caught my death of cold dancing attendance on her ladyship. My next-door neighexcited, the police disarmed him and lodged the poor chap in the lock-up for a couple of hours. Altogether the arrival of the new American Admiral was a startler f.

On the 16th the Admiral and band went to the palace, where the King entertained him at a banquet, while the band played. The musiclans said they thought the King was a real good fellow, and his liquor No. 1.

While, in Soul, Minister Dinsmore held a brilliant reception and ball at the U.S. Legation in honour of the Admiral. The corps diplomatique were present and all the leading residents: and principal Korean Government officials. Everything passed off very pleasantly, the fine music of the band being highly appreciated. On the 23rd instant the Omaka left here for is to be hoped that the day is not far distant when Japan will possess half a dozen cruisers of tue Tsukushi class. The latest piece of dishonesty and cool effrontery which this so-called Government is guilty of, is its notification to Major Lee and Colonel Cummins, that their services are no longer required. Had this notification been accompanied with some written explanation, and a cheque for payment of their salaries in full up to end of time specified in their contracts, no offence would have been given, and the action of the responsible officials would have been fairly decent. But the upshot is, that the U.S Minister has been requested to take steps to obtain necessary explanations and reparation for this unwarrantable insult, put upon two unoffending gentlemen and soldiers. It is all very well for Koren, in her bankrupt condition, to reduce the number of foreign employes; but it should be done in a respectable and polite manner. Mr. Oiesen has arrived, as Chief Secretary for Customs in Soul. It is rumoured Mr. Chief Commissioner Mercill will soon go home on leave, and his place will be filled by Mr. Schoenicke, who has lately been promoted to full Com-missioner by Sir Robert Hart. Mr. Pierce, it is supposed, will go away by the Owari on the 29th instant : I mean the mining engineer.

The Russian cruiser Manieure, which left here for Japan on the 6th instant, has not yet returned. She should come back soon, as there are still two Russian subjects in this country ! Mr. Charles Pierce, mining engineer, leaves to-day per Owari for sunnier climes. Mr. Oiesen, a Danish gentleman member of the Chinese Imperial Maritime Customs service. has arrived by Owari Maru. It is understood he will be Acting Chief Secretary at the Head Office in Soul, when Mr. Chief Commissioner Merrill goes away on well-carned leave, and Mr. Schoenicke, who has been lately promoted to rank of full Commissioner by Sir Robert Hart, the Inspector General, takes over the port-. folio of the Chief Commissioner, with residence in Söul.

Mr Johnston, now Chief Secretary, will come to Chemulpo as Commissioner, so it is said. The fire at Macrten's Silk Filature in Soul on the 9th inst. was, as I have already informed you, at the old Palace, which was converted into | & WALSH, LIMITED. a silk establishment. Carelessness of the employes may have been the cause of the fire, Korean troops put the fire out, but not till after it had been well gutted. The audience hall was destroyed, and all the adjoining buildings.

We have been favoured by a call from a British man-of-fight—the Leander; she stayed with us three days and then left for Nagasaki. The Nippon Yusen Kaisha has three steamers in port, and another is expected to-day from Jenchuan. They are all full of cargo, both export and import.

Mr. Waeber, the Russian Minister for Soul, passed through here lately. He had his eye on Deer Island.
